POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Regulation 30 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 [hereinafter referred to as “SEBI (LODR) Regulations”] mandates that every listed entity shall make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the listed Company, is material as well as any price sensitive information.

The listed entity shall frame a policy for determination of materiality, based on the specified criteria duly approved by its board of directors, which shall be disclosed on its website.

The Board of Directors of the listed entity shall authorize one or more Key Managerial Personnel for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information for the purpose of making disclosures.

In view of the same, this “Policy for Determination of Materiality and Disclosure of Information” of Integrum Energy Infrastructure Limited (“hereinafter referred to as the Company”) has been framed and adopted on September 01, 2024 (Effective Date), considering that stakeholders of the Company need timely, sufficient & reliable information and communication in a coherent manner regarding material events that matters/make influence on the Company. The SEBI (LODR) Regulations divide the events that need to be disclosed broadly in the following two categories:

- (i) events that have to be necessarily disclosed without applying any test of materiality (indicated in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations); and
- (ii) Events that should be disclosed by the listed entity based on application of materiality criteria. (Indicated in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations).

2. POLICY(i) Identification of Authority:

KMP’s of the Company (as defined in sub-section 51 of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013), mentioned hereunder, shall be severally entitled and are authorized to:

- a. take a view on the materiality of an event or information that qualifies for disclosure under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations;
- b. decide the appropriate time at which such disclosure is to be filed with Stock Exchanges, and decide the details that may be filed in the best interest of present and potential investors.

(ii) Identification of Materiality and Events:

- a. Events specified in Annexure A shall be deemed to be material and have to be necessarily disclosed without applying any test of any materiality.

- b. Events specified in Annexure B shall be disclosed based on application of materiality criteria.

(iii) Criteria to be considered for determination of materiality of events/information:

Materiality must be determined on a case to case basis depending on the material facts and the circumstances pertaining to the information or event and would be determined based on the qualitative judgement to be exercised by the Authorized Person. The following criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of event or Information: -

- a. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result indiscontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- b. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- c. the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - i. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - ii. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - iii. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
- d. In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the listed entity, the event or information is considered material:
Provided that any continuing event or information which becomes material pursuant to notification of these amendment regulations shall be disclosed by the listed entity within thirty days from the date of coming into effect of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2023.
- e. If in the opinion of the Board of Directors, the event / information is considered material.
