Policy on Succession Planning for the Board and Senior Management

1. Background

The Securities and Exchange Board of India has mandated the need for a succession policy pursuant to Regulation 17(4) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (the “SEBI Listing Regulations”). It is a significant attempt to ensure that investors do not suffer due to sudden or unplanned gaps in leadership. It is a mandate for boards of all listed companies to develop an action plan for successful transition of key executives.

Succession planning is the process of determining the need for filling positions at the Board, senior management, and other key positions. It includes identifying candidates and developing them to be prepared for the designated roles in order to fill potential vacancies. Succession planning is an essential component to the efficient operation and growth of any business. Succession planning is a tool for an organization to ensure its continued effective performance through leadership continuity. A good succession-planning program aims to identify high growth individuals, train them and feed the pipelines with talents.

Integrum Energy Infrastructure Limited (the “Company”) recognises the importance of the succession planning process to provide for continuity in the smooth functioning of the Company. Certain positions in the Company are key to its current and future growth. It is critical to fill any vacancy(ies) in such position(s) well in time to avoid any leadership gap. The Company has therefore put in place a Policy on Succession Planning for the Board and Senior Management (the “Policy”).

The Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Policy vide its Board meeting held on 12/09/2026. The Policy shall come into force with effect from the date Regulation 17(4) of the SEBI Listing Regulations takes effect with respect to the Company.

2. Objectives

- a. To ensure that the business of the Company is not affected on account of interruptions caused by resignation, superannuation, or exit due to any other reason of any Board member or member of Senior Management
- b. To identify the competency requirements of critical and key positions in the Company, assess potential candidates and develop required competency through planned development and learning initiatives;

- c. To ensure timely and high-quality replacements for vacancies caused at Board level and in Senior Management
- d. To identify the key job incumbents in Senior Management and recommend whether the concerned individual:
 - i. be granted an extension in term/ service or
 - ii. be replaced with an identified internal or external candidate or recruit other suitable candidate(s)
- e. To ensure the systematic and long-term development of individuals in the Senior Management level and to replace when the need arises due to resignations, death, disabilities, retirements, and other unexpected occurrence.

3. Applicability of the Policy

The Policy applies to succession planning for members of the Board, Senior Management, and any other positions within the Company, at the discretion of the managing director and/or the chief executive officer, in consultation with the Board.

Explanation: The term “Senior Management” shall mean the officers and personnel of the Company who are members of its core management team, excluding the Board of Directors, and shall also comprise all the members of the management one level below the chief executive officer or managing director or whole-time director or manager (including chief executive officer and manager, in case they are not part of the Board of Directors) and shall specifically include the functional heads, by whatever name called and the company secretary and the chief financial officer as per Regulation 16(1)(d)) of the SEBI Listing Regulations.

In addition to the foregoing, any vacancy in the office of a Director, Compliance Officer, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director, Whole-time Director, Manager, or Chief Financial Officer shall be filled by the Company at the earliest, and in any event not later than three (3) months from the date such vacancy arises, in accordance with Regulation 17(1E) and Regulation 26A of the SEBI Listing Regulations. Any appointment made in an interim capacity to fill such vacancy shall be made in compliance with the applicable provisions of law as if such appointment were a fresh appointment to that office.

4. Succession plan for the Board and Senior Management

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) shall review

the Company's leadership needs from time to time.

a. Succession plan for the Board:

The Committee shall determine the suitability of every person who is being considered for appointment or re-appointment as a director based on his / her educational qualification, experience, track record and contribution to the Board, as applicable, and every such person shall meet the 'fit and proper' criteria as may be stipulated by the Committee, from time to time, and accordingly any appointment or re-appointment of a director shall be subject to prior approval/recommendation by the Committee.

The Company has also framed a Nomination and Remuneration Policy and a Policy on Diversity of the Board to guide the Board in relation to the appointment / re-appointment / removal of the directors and to ensure adequate diversity in the board to make good use of the varied skills, regional and industry experience, background, gender, and other qualities of the directors. Accordingly, the appointment / re-appointment / removal and tenure of Directors shall be governed by the provisions of the Nomination and Remuneration Policy.

b. Succession plan for Senior Management:

Based on inputs received from the Company's Human Resource Department (the "HR"), the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("Committee") shall periodically review and consider the list of Senior Management due for retirement/attrition within the year. HR should also consider new vacancies that may arise due to business needs/upgradation of department(s)/regional office(s). Considering the above, the Committee shall assess the availability, internally and/or externally as the case may be, of suitable candidates for the Company's future growth and development.

Further, based on the recommendation of the managing director and/or the chief executive officer, the Committee:

- i. shall evaluate the incumbent after considering all relevant criteria like experience, age, health, leadership quality, etc., and recommend whether the concerned individual
 - a. be granted an extension in term/service; or
 - b. be replaced with an identified internal or external candidate.

- ii. shall identify the competency requirements of the key positions, assess potential candidates and develop required competency through planned development and learning initiatives. Committee may utilise the services of professional search firms to assist in identifying and evaluating potential candidates.
- iii. may recommend appointing other suitable external candidate(s) as special recruitment in Senior Management based on the profiles and competency in order to provide a continuous flow of talented people to meet the organisational needs.
- iv. the prevailing promotion/transfer policy or related policy of the Company shall be designed in such a way that the existing / proposed Senior Management shall get all-round exposure in various domains to facilitate career progression, prepare them for administrative responsibilities and to discharge their functions effectively in senior positions.
- v. every member of the Senior Management shall always endeavour to add capability in-house and mentor officials with potential working under him/her to handle his/her responsibilities in his / her absence by exposing him/ her to all aspects of work being handled by him/ her; and
- vi. in addition to the above, the appointment of key managerial personnel as defined under Section 2(51) of the Companies Act shall be made in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, read with the SEBI Listing Regulations.

5. Emergency Succession

If the Director's slot/senior management's position suddenly becomes vacant by reason of death or other unanticipated occurrence, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall convene a special meeting as early as possible to implement the process described herein. In all such cases, the Committee shall ensure that any vacancy in the office of a Director, Compliance Officer, Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director, Whole-time Director, Manager, or Chief Financial Officer is filled within the statutory timeline of three (3) months from the date such vacancy arises, as prescribed under Regulation 17(1E) and Regulation 26A of the SEBI Listing Regulations, save where such timeline stands extended on account of time taken for any regulatory, statutory, or governmental approval required for the proposed appointment. Any appointment made to fill such vacancy in an interim capacity shall be made in compliance with the applicable provisions of law as if such appointment were a fresh appointment to that office.

6. Conflict in Policy

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s), etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s), etc. shall prevail upon the provisions in this Policy and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly.

7. Review of Policy

The Board may review this Policy from time to time, on the Committee's recommendation.
