TERMS OF SEBI (PROHIBITION OF INSIDER TRADING) REGULATIONS, 2015)

INTRODUCTION

Insider trading means dealing (including buying as well as selling) in securities of a company listed/traded on any stock exchange in India based on, or when in possession of, unpublished price sensitive information.

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as ‘The Regulations’).

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 9 inter alia, requires all listed companies to frame a Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by insiders by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule B to the Regulations.

Integrum Energy Infrastructure Limited has formulated this Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Insiders’ (“Code”) on September 26, 2024. The securities of the Company being securities proposed to be listed, the provisions of this Code relating to the preservation of confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, the information barrier, the structured digital database and the duties of Insiders under Regulations 3 and 4 of the PIT Regulations shall be effective from the date of adoption of this Code. The remaining provisions of this Code, including those relating to the Trading Window, pre-clearance of trades and disclosures to the Stock Exchanges, shall be effective from the date of listing.

All the Directors, Designated Persons, Designated Employees and connected persons of Integrum Energy Infrastructure Limited are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Regulations and the Code.

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“UPSI”) and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Director, Designated Person, Designated Employee and connected person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such UPSI obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Director, Officer, Designated Officer and connected persons may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party. The Company hereby stipulates that this code of conduct is to be complied by all Directors, Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons, Designated Employee and Connected persons.

COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- a. The Compliance Officer is responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of UPSI, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the codes specified in the Insider Trading Regulations under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.
- b. The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of Designated Persons and any changes made to the list of Designated Persons, all the declarations submitted in the appropriate form given by the Designated Persons.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall ensure proper assistance to all the employees/ directors in addressing any clarifications regarding the Insider Trading Regulations and this Code.
- d. The Compliance Officer shall in consultation with the Chairman and/or Managing Director and the Board specify the prohibited period (i.e. closure of the trading window in accordance with the Insider Trading Regulations) from time to time and make announcement/s thereof ensuring that prohibited period is intimated to all concerned before the commencement of the said period.
- e. The Compliance Officer shall recommend to the Audit committee and/or the Managing Director or the Board punitive measures or disciplinary action prescribed for any violation or contravention of this Code.

- f. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, or to the Chairman of the Board at the beginning of each financial year or at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board.
- g. The Compliance Officer shall monitor the bringing in of Insiders on sensitive transactions and shall make them aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.
- h. The Board of Directors shall designate in writing an alternate Compliance Officer, who shall discharge the functions of the Compliance Officer under this Code during any period in which the Compliance Officer is unable to act, so that applications for pre-clearance, determinations relating to the closure and reopening of the Trading Window and entries in the structured digital database are not delayed. Every action taken by the alternate Compliance Officer shall be reported to the Compliance Officer on resumption of office and shall be recorded.
- i. The Compliance Officer shall place before the Audit Committee, at least once in every financial year, a report on the operation of the structured digital database, including the outcome of any independent review of the database, together with the report required for the purposes of Regulation 9A of the PIT Regulations.

PRESERVATION OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

- a. All UPSI is to be handled on a “Need to Know” basis, i.e. UPSI should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or likelihood of misuse of the information.

To prevent the misuse of confidential information the Company adopts a ‘Chinese Wall’ policy thereby separating those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered as ‘inside areas’ from those areas which deal with sale / marketing / investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered as ‘public areas’.

The employees in the inside areas shall not communicate any UPSI to any one in public area. Demarcation of various departments as ‘inside area’ shall be implemented by the Compliance Officer, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

In exceptional circumstances i.e. in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, any Designated Person may be permitted to ‘cross the wall’ and give UPSI to any person on a ‘need to know’ basis, under intimation to and with prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

- b. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to the Company or securities, to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

INTEGRUM ENERGY INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED

- c. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to the Company or securities, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- d. However, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which:
 - i. entails an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such UPSI is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - ii. does not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board of the Company is of the informed opinion that sharing of such UPSI is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitutes UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- e. For the above purposes, the Board shall require the parties to such transactions to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of this clause 4 and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.
- f. Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.
- g. Digital Database: A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons or entities with whom information is shared or who has shared such information along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Where any UPSI is received by the Company, or by any Insider, from a person other than the Company, the corresponding entry in the structured digital database shall be made not later than 2 (two) calendar days from the receipt of such information. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. This digital database should be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions. The Board of Directors shall ensure compliance with this clause in consultation with the Compliance Officer.

PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall be subject to trading restrictions enumerated herein. As a general overriding rule, no Insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI. When a person who is in possession of UPSI, has traded in securities, his trades would be presumed to be motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession except in the circumstances and exceptions specified under the Insider Trading Regulations.

TRADING IN SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY

An Insider shall not, directly or indirectly, trade in securities of the company when in possession of UPSI. No Designated Person shall take positions in derivative transactions in the Securities of the Company at any time.

The above restriction may not apply to:

- i. off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI without violating the Code and the PIT Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision provided that such UPSI was not obtained by either person under sub regulation 3 of Regulation 3 of the Insider Trading Code. Further such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days and the company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- ii. transaction carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI without violating the Code or the PIT Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision, provided that such UPSI was not obtained by either person under sub regulation 3 of Regulation 3 of the Insider Trading Code
- iii. transaction carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- iv. transaction undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- v. trades executed as per the Trading Plan set up in accordance with the Code.

The exceptions above reflect the exceptions allowed as per the PIT Regulations, and nothing above shall preclude the prior approval or other requirements in relation to Trading in Company's Securities under the Code, as set out herein, and all such transaction must always be in compliance with the PIT Regulations.

TRADING WINDOW AND PRE- CLEARANCE OF TRADES

Trading Window

- a. The Trading Window shall be closed for trading by Designated Persons during the period when unpublished price sensitive information remains unpublished or is being processed.
- b. Trading Window shall also be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, till 48 hours after the UPSI is made public and becomes generally available.
- c. In terms of Clause 4 of Schedule B to the PIT Regulations, as amended with effect from June 9, 2025, the Trading Window need not be closed in respect of UPSI which has not emanated from within the Company. Where the Compliance Officer decides not to close the Trading Window on this basis, the reasons for that decision shall be recorded in writing at the time and shall be reported to the Audit Committee.

- d. In addition to such periods prescribed by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window shall be closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.
- e. No Designated Person and their Immediate Relatives shall trade in the securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
- f. It shall be the responsibility of the Designated Persons to advise their Immediate Relatives of Trading Window period closures.
- g. Other than the period(s) for which the 'Trading Window' is closed as prescribed hereunder, the same shall remain open for trading in the Securities of the Company by the Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives.

The trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of transactions:

- a. specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Insider Trading Regulations.
- b. in respect of a pledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by SEBI.
- c. which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by SEBI such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.

Pre- clearance of Trades

- a. All Designated Persons of the Company, who intend to trade in the securities of the Company, if the value of the securities likely to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of INR 10,00,000, will have to make an application to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Form A) given in this Code for pre-clearance of the transaction.
- b. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. The Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- c. The restrictions contained in this clause shall also apply to Immediate Relatives in respect the concerned Designated Person.
- d. All the pre-approved trades shall in respect of the securities of the Company shall be executed within seven Trading Days after the approval for pre-clearance is given, failing which, fresh pre-clearance for trades to be executed shall be obtained.

- e. The concerned persons shall disclose to the Company the number of securities acquired or disposed of for which pre-clearance is obtained within two trading days of such transaction.
- f. The concerned persons shall disclose to the Company the number of securities not traded, in respect of transactions for which pre-clearance is obtained within seven Trading Days after the approval of pre-clearance is given.
- g. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's Immediate Relatives.

(2) Trading Plans:

- (1) Right to formulate a Trading Plan: An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan in respect of the Securities of the Company pursuant to Regulation 5 of the PIT Regulations and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure. Trades may thereafter be carried out on his or her behalf strictly in accordance with the approved plan. A Trading Plan shall not overlap with any other Trading Plan of the same insider which is in force.
- (2) Contents of the Trading Plan: The Trading Plan shall set out, in respect of each trade, either the value of the trade to be effected or the number of Securities to be traded, the nature of the trade, and a specific date or a period not exceeding 5 (five) consecutive Trading Days within which the trade is to be effected. The insider may, in addition, specify an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, provided that such limit shall not exceed 20% above or below the closing price of the Security on the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of submission of the plan. The Trading Plan shall state the date on which its implementation shall commence and the date on or by which it shall be completed.
- (3) Cool-off period: Trading under an approved Trading Plan shall not commence earlier than 120 (one hundred and twenty) calendar days from the date of public disclosure of the plan.
- (4) Approval by the Compliance Officer: The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether its implementation would have any potential for violation of the PIT Regulations, and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings from the insider as may be necessary to enable that assessment. The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the Trading Plan within 2 (two) Trading Days of its receipt and, where the plan is approved, shall notify it to the Stock Exchanges on which the Securities of the Company are listed on the day of approval.
- (5) Adjustment on a corporate action: Where a corporate action, such as a bonus issue or a stock split, alters the number of Securities or the price limits specified in an approved Trading Plan, the insider may apply to the Compliance Officer for a corresponding adjustment, and any adjustment so approved shall be notified to the Stock Exchanges.
- (6) Pre-clearance and Trading Window: Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for trades executed in accordance with an approved Trading Plan, and the Trading Window closure norms shall not apply to such trades. No insider shall submit a Trading Plan to the Compliance Officer during the closure of the Trading Window.

- (7) Contra trade: No insider shall execute a Contra Trade during the period of a Trading Plan approved by the Compliance Officer.
- (8) Irrevocability and non-implementation: Once approved, the Trading Plan shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily implement it, without executing any trade in the Securities outside its scope or deviating from it. Implementation shall not be mandated where (a) the insider suffers permanent incapacity or bankruptcy, or implementation is prevented by operation of law; (b) the price of the Security at the time of execution falls outside the price limit, if any, specified in the plan; or (c) there is inadequate liquidity in the Securities of the Company.
- (9) Reporting of non-implementation: Where a Trading Plan is not implemented, in whole or in part, the insider shall intimate the Compliance Officer in writing within 2 (two) Trading Days of the end of the tenure of the plan, stating the reasons and enclosing supporting evidence. The Compliance Officer shall place the intimation before the Audit Committee, which shall determine whether the non-implementation was in good faith, and shall notify the non-implementation to the Stock Exchanges.

OTHER RESTRICTIONS

- a. Designated Persons and/or their Immediate Relatives shall be prohibited from entering into derivative transactions in respect of Securities of the Company.
- b. Any Designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a Contra Trade within six months. In case any Contra Trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- c. In case any Contra Trade is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period of six months as specified above may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard, subject to the Insider Trading Regulations. An application for waiver of holding period shall be made to the Compliance Officer through the prescribed Form (Form F).

DISCLOSURES OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

a. Initial Disclosures

- a. Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming promoter to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming promoter in the prescribed Form (Form B).
- b. The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all such disclosures for a minimum period of five years.

b. Continual Disclosures

- a. Every promoter member of the promoter group, designated person and director of every company shall disclose in Form C to the company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees.
- b. The company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- c. Designated Persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
 - i. immediate relatives
 - ii. persons with whom such Designated Person(s) shares a material financial relationship
 - iii. Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

- d. The Company shall provide information pertaining to the Designated Persons to the relevant depository/ stock exchanges, in compliance with the requirements of applicable law relating to system driven disclosures.
- e. The Company may, at its discretion, require any other Connected Person(s) apart from the Entities as mentioned above to make disclosure of its holdings and trading in securities of the Company in the prescribed form (Form D) and at such frequency as may be determined by the Compliance Officer.

(9) Violation of the Code:

- (a) Every Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel, Director and Designated Employee of the Company and the persons deemed to be connected persons as per this Code who violates any of the provisions of this Code will be penalized and appropriate action will be taken against them by the Company after giving reasonable opportunity to them to show cause. They shall also be subject to disciplinary action including wage freeze, Suspension, ineligibility for future participation in E.S.O.P. etc.
- (b) If the Insider deals in the equity shares of the Company, violating the Code, the Compliance Officer will confidentially maintain the list of the same.

- (c) In addition to the action which may be taken by the Company, the persons violating this Code will also be subject to any penal action by SEBI as per SEBI Act and the Company shall inform the same to the SEBI promptly.

- (10) The Compliance Officer of the Company shall report to the Board of Directors and the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company about the compliance of the Code on quarterly basis.

(11) FORMATS

All formats referred to in this Policy shall mean the formats as prescribed and made available as annexures to this policy.

(12) POLICY REVIEW AND AMENDMENTS

The Board reserves the power to review and amend this Code from time to time. All provisions of this Code would be subject to revision / amendment in accordance with Applicable Laws. In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant statutory, governmental and regulatory authorities are not consistent with the provisions laid down under this Code, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail upon the provisions hereunder.

Additionally, policies/procedures for inquiry in case of Leak of UPSI or Suspected Leak of UPSI shall also be adhered to for enquiry and reporting purposes.

INSTITUTIONAL MECHANISM FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

In terms of Regulation 9A of the PIT Regulations, the Chief Executive Officer or the Managing Director of the Company shall put in place adequate and effective systems of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements of the PIT Regulations to prevent insider trading. Such internal controls shall include the identification of UPSI and of all persons who have access to it, restrictions on the communication of UPSI, the maintenance of a list of employees and other persons with whom UPSI is shared under a confidentiality agreement, and periodic review and evaluation of the effectiveness of such controls.

The Audit Committee shall review compliance with the provisions of the PIT Regulations and shall verify, at least once in a financial year, that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

The Company shall formulate and communicate to its employees a Whistle-Blower Policy enabling them to report instances of leak of UPSI or of suspected leak of UPSI, and shall ensure that the identity of the person so reporting is protected.

On becoming aware of any leak or suspected leak of UPSI, the Compliance Officer shall inform the Chairman of the Audit Committee forthwith, preserve the relevant entries in the structured digital database and the related communication records, initiate enquiry under the policy referred to above, and inform SEBI promptly of the enquiry and of its outcome.
